

Dedicated to helping individuals with disabilities and their families with the educational and behavioral support they need.

- Do you have a child with special needs?
- Is your child struggling to meet IEP goals?
- Are behavior problems affecting your child's progress?
- Are you wishing for additional help?

If you answered "yes" to any of these questions, then New Spring Special Education Services has the solution.

SERVICES PROVIDED:

- Behavior Support**

We focus on behaviors using positive reinforcement and ABA strategies to keep success high. We give parents support and ideas for improving behaviors at home.

- Educational Intervention and Tutoring

Instruction for individuals with disabilities who have splinter skills and need extra help in academic areas of math, reading, science, and social studies.

- IEP and Parent Training/Support

Students and parents get the support they need to navigate the IEP and reach goals. We talk with parents, listen to their concerns, and give them strategies to best address concerns at home, in the community, and at school.
